Dr. Crist and Franklin County Coroner J. D. Goshen will officiate at the joint Adams-Franklin County inquest to be held at 4 o'clock in the Grove Funeral Home at Waynesboro.

Swallows Come To Capistrano

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (AP)—Bell ringer Ambrosio Valenzuela was tolling the Angelus when he saw the first swallows circling in the pale dawn above the old mission.

Later, sisters of the mission en route to early Mass glimpsed the wheeling, darting birds.

For the arrival of the first swallows—scouts as the villagers call them—virtually assures the return of the main contingent today, St. Joseph's Day.

There was no hotel or motel space last night as tourists poured into this picturesque old town about 70 miles southeast of Los Angeles to see the swallows "come back to Capistrano."

Each October the swallows leave their nests in the books and crevices of the mission to wing to warmer southern climes. And each March—usually on St. Joseph's Day—they return. Hence, the legend.

Hagerty said the carrier would be in the Jacksonville area and dispatch its planes to the Canberra's vicinity. The target area was a wooden spar towed about 2,000 feet astern of the destroyer Barton, which is escorting the Canberra.

Lt. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, boss of the U.N. salvage fleet, has estimated the channel will be cleared for vessels of maximum tonnage by April 10.

SUGGESTS TOWN REVERT TO CIVIL WAR "LOOK"

The Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce Monday night called upon homeowners and businessmen of the town to consider a colonial or 1863 period style when remodeling.

Meeting in the Chamber offices in the Plaza building, the Chamber directors passed a resolution recommending "strongly consider" bringing the fronts of their homes and stores in keeping with Civil War or prior period styles when they remodel, adding that "if the people of Gettysburg so wished they could in 30 years produce another Williamsburg at no additional cost to anyone."

President LeRoy E. Smith said "Within a 30-year span the fronts of practically every store and many homes will have been remodeled in Gettysburg. It is a normal practice to change store fronts from time to time and we hope that when changes are made the town will adopt a colonial or 1863 style. If they do, eventually the town will be even more attractive to tourists."

Report Many Queries

A program adopted by the Chamber last year has more than fulfilled the expectations of the directors. Last fall the Samsonite Luggage Corporation wrote asking if the local Chamber would answer correspondence it might receive if the town was included among the "100 outstanding historical and resort areas" in a Samsonite Travel Bureau program to be set up in the 3,000 stores where the company sells luggage. Approval was given and the town was included in the company's program. In its travel displays the luggage company places small cards with the names of 100 tourist centers. Persons visiting the stores are invited to send the card to the Chamber of the tourist center of their choice.

The program went into effect at the beginning of the year and during the last month the local Chamber has answered 512 cards sent from throughout the United States.

Have 91 Members

Membership in the Chamber now totals 91, Glenn Guise, membership chairman, reported. Last year's total was 104. Ten additional membership pledges were added Monday night, but are not counted in the total until the membership fee of $25 is paid.

Mrs. Helen Snyder, secretary, reported 25,000 Gettysburg folders purchased by the Chamber, Travel Council and Retail Merchants. The Retail Merchants paid $288.13, Travel Council $300 and the Chamber $327.95. 1,500 were sent out last month along with response to 1,200 inquiries concerning Gettysburg.

Ask Good Friday Closing

Mrs. Snyder's report showed 3,000 persons saw the film "A Story of Gettysburg." Showings were presented in New York, Virginia, Ohio, Alabama and Michigan.

Plan New Try At Speed Record

PATUXENT RIVER, Md. (AP)—The Navy will make another stab "in just a few days" at cracking the transcontinental jet speed record.

That was the word from Cmdr. Dale W. Cox Jr., pilot of the A3D-1 Skywarrior attack bomber which yesterday abandoned its try to beat the coast-to-coast jet record of 3 hours 44 minutes and 53.88 seconds.

The bomber took off from Los Angeles International Airport for New York.

Cox told newsmen the three-man crew decided to abandon the record run over Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., after falling five minutes behind their flight plan.

BAND BOOSTERS OPEN ACCOUNT TO FINANCE TRIPS

A savings account to finance trips of the Gettysburg High School band will be opened with an initial deposit of $109.95. It represents the balance of the fund raised by The Gettysburg Times through popular subscriptions to finance the band's trip to Washington to participate in the second inaugural parade of President Eisenhower.

This decision was reached at a meeting of the Band Boosters Club in the band room at the high school. Robert C. Zeigler, band director, was given a rising vote of thanks for the District Band's appearance at the school and subsequent concerts.

The spring concert of the three bands will be presented as an "appreciation" concert for those who contributed to the fund raised through The Times for the Washington trip January 21. It will be held March 29.

James Rowe, the club president, conducted a business session preceding the program which included a demonstration of a number of percussion instruments by Fred Smith and Bonnie Gaston, members of the Senior High School band, and the showing of a color film of the inauguration parade.

Dinner Meeting In May

Rowe appointed Mrs. Paul Ketterman chairman of the nominating committee, which will report at the annual May dinner meeting. Members of the committee include: Mrs. Fred Tilberg, Mrs. Max Leonard and Mrs. Carl E. Prosser. The social activities committee, with Mrs. Douglas Smith as chairman, will arrange the covered dish dinner in the high school cafeteria.

Her committee includes Mrs. Paul Snyder, Mrs. George Olinger, Mrs. William Kuhn, Philip Neth, Guy Kime, Mrs. Sara Gideon, Ralph W. Guise, Addison R. Durboraw and Mrs. B. W. Redding.

The session began at 2 p.m. at Keefeauver school with a keynote talk by Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle. The workshop theme is "The Gettysburg Area Teacher Studies His Profession." Philosophy and ethics will be discussed.

After an evening meal in the cafeteria the teachers will reassemble for a general summary by Dr. Russell S. Rosenberger, head of the department of education at Gettysburg College.

School directors have been invited to the workshop.

SAY CANCER IS COUNTY'S 2ND BIGGEST KILLER

The facts that cancer is usually curable and that more funds are needed urgently for cancer research were emphasized by speakers Monday evening at a joint dinner meeting of Gettysburg service clubs at the Gettysburg High School cafeteria described as the "kick-off" for the 1957 cancer crusade for $10,000 in Adams County.

Douglas W. Smith, cancer crusade chairman for the county, was toastmaster at the joint meeting with 140 in attendance.

The work of the tumor clinic at the Warner Hospital, conducted by the Adams County Cancer Society, was described by Dr. George Ewing who showed color slides of cancers before and after treatment by surgery or radiation.

Second Largest Killer

"Keep your balance when cancer comes, for cancer is curable," Dr. Ewing said. Pointing out that while the basic, underlying cause of cancer is yet undetected, research has made great strides. Cancer is not contagious and cannot be inherited although there are indications that tendencies toward susceptibility to cancer may be inherited.

He explained that cancer spread in two ways — through the growth of tumors and through the circulatory and lymphatic systems. He urged the importances of seeking (Continued on Page 2)

Union Boss Has Lapse Of Memory In Senate Probing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Frank W. Brewster, West Coast Teamsters Union boss, said today "I can't remember" whether the son of his race horse trainer traveled by air at the union's expense.

Robert F. Kennedy, counsel to the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, showed Brewster documents which he said indicated that a "Bobby Eisen" made trips, one costing $46.09 and another $55.22 — by air in California that were charged to the union.

Brewster said his former horse trainer, Mei Eisen, has a son named Bobby Eisen, but that "I can't remember" whether the son as well as the father traveled at union expense.

The testimony marked the start of the fourth week and 13th day of public hearings by the committee.

"Vital" Questioning

In advance of the session, Kennedy told reporters that the questioning of Brewster might have a "vital" bearing on a later inquiry involving President Dave Beck of the Teamsters Union.

Kennedy also said that Beck's story of borrowing some $300,000 to $400,000 of union funds "is not the same as our information."

Brewster was indicted yesterday by a federal grand jury on contempt of Congress charges along with Vice President Einar Mohn and two lesser union officials. All four were accused of having contemptuously refused to answer

RED CROSS TO REVIVE STAFF ASSISTANT LIST

The need for a roster of volunteer workers to be on call for clerical and other duties at the headquarters of the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross will be developed following action at the March meeting of the chapter's board of directors at the engine house Monday evening.

Directors pointed up the need for reactivation of the volunteer staff assistants who served during World War II for some time thereafter under the leadership of Mrs. Earl Bowen.

Chapter Chairman George W. Naugle, who presided at the meeting, said no more home nursing courses can be given until new quarters are found for the classes. A class currently being held in the town council meeting room in the engine house will conclude with two more sessions but that room will not be available for future classes.

Reports On Fund Drive

Fund Campaign Chairman Crosby N. Hartzell reported $2,000 already received in the chapter's campaign for $17,000 and predicted successful completion of the drive being conducted throughout the county by 400 solicitors.

Francis L. Paul, field representative, Red Cross area headquarters, explained to the directors the need for the additional funds being sought in this year's drive for disaster relief. He also discussed the blood program and the retirement plan for Red Cross employees.

The monthly home service showed 194 office calls, six home visits and three trips to veterans' hospitals last month. Six servicemen, five veterans and four civilians and their families were aided. The report showed $30.50 loaned to servicemen. A report was presented for the Junior Red Cross and the monthly report of the treasurer was given by Ray J. Kitzmiller.

500 Countians File Petitions As Candidates For Five County Offices, Borough, Twp. Offices

Our three great religious faiths

—Protestant, Catholic and Jewish—currently are appealing for their overseas relief programs through which assistance is given annually to many millions of hungry and homeless people, refugees from aggression and victims of disaster.

These appeals, in which Americans emphasize through their houses of worship their spiritual acceptance of the common brotherhood of man, are:

The "One Great Hour of Sharing" observance of the 1957 United Appeal in major Protestant churches on Sunday, March 31.

The "Bishops' Relief Fund Appeal" in Roman Catholic Churches on Sunday, March 31.

The "Emergency Rescue Fund" of the United Jewish Appeal currently in progress and continuing throughout this period.

Through these independent but common-purpose ministries of mercy, accounting for more than 80 per cent of all of America's voluntary overseas relief efforts, the greatest possible good is achieved at the lowest cost.

This is possible because in world-wide organization networks of the religious faiths—as nowhere else—there are thousands of voluntary workers available in every country, keeping expense at a minimum and person-to-person contact at a maximum.

For example, in the sharing of U. S. surplus commodities with the needy overseas — through (Continued on Page 3) medical care at the "first appearance of any of the seven danger signals." He emphasized the fact that most cancers are curable if treatment is begun in time.

Chairman Smith said cancer is the second largest killer in Adams County. He said there were 433 deaths from all causes in the county in 1955. Top killer was heart disease at 164 and cancer was second with 61. "Every two minutes someone in the United States dies of cancer," he said.

General Fluck Speaks

Principal speaker was Maj. Gen. Henry K. Fluck, 28th Division commander and chairman of the Pennsylvania cancer campaign. Speaking of the urgency of the need for funds for cancer research, General Fluck said: "Cancer hits two families in every three in our nation and last year a million family heads died of this disease." The goal of the American Cancer Society, founded in 1913, is "to lick cancer and then go out of business," he continued.

He said the national goal this year in the crusade to be conducted in April is to raise $30,000,000 for research, public education and for the local service programs of county cancer units. Pennsylvania's goal is $1,500,000. "We are making great strides through research in our war against cancer and we can say now that one third of all cancer cases is curable. Nearly all of them would be curable if they were discovered and treated in time."

He praised the county cancer society and its leaders and expressed confidence that it will reach its $10,000 goal.

Chairman Smith announced the appointment of John Brown, of Biglerville, as industrial chairman for the April crusade.

Local Leaders Introduced

Smith also said the county society has five beds and two wheel chairs that are available for the use of cancer patients in the county.

Lighter, office secretary; Miss Anna Weaver, Miss Evelyn Althoff, Mrs. William Harbaugh and Mrs. Paul Pitzer.

Lane said the only information to be completed are maps showing potential sites, sizes, topography, distance from utilities, railroads, etc., and approximate cost. The maps will be completed in about two weeks, he said.

Julian Estep was asked to obtain further information on a plan used by a nearby city to attract industry in which the Chamber of Commerce, through sums pledged by various business and individuals, purchased potential factory sites and then secured return of the money over a ten-year period by payments made by the firms locating on the sites.

"GOD LOVES CHILDREN"

When God calls little children . . . to dwell with Him above . . . we mortals always question . . . the wisdom of His love . . . for no heartache compares with . . . the death of one small child . . . who does so much to make this world . . . seem wonderful and mild . . . perhaps God tires calling . . . the aged to His fold . . . and so He picks a rosebud . . . before it can grow old . . . God knows how much we need them . . . and so He takes but few . . . to make the land of heaven . . . more beautiful to view . . . believing this is difficult . . . still somehow we must try . . . the saddest word that mankind knows . . . will always be "goodbye" . . . and so when little ones depart . . . we who are left behind . . . must realize God loves children . . . angels are hard to find.

MINOR ACCIDENT

William Pinko, 205 S. Washington St., reported to borough police at 2:10 o'clock Sunday afternoon that Thomas Pentoney, 3, of 51 Breckenridge St., had "run out into the street" at the child's home and collided with the Pinko car. The child was reported to police as apparently uninjured.

PHILADELPHIA (P)—A four-year-old girl died in her home at nearby Ridley Park Monday and police said her mother admitted she had whipped the youngster.

The death of blonde Barbara Jean Wiley was disclosed when her bruised pajama-clad body was taken to a hospital by her mother, Mrs. Jean Wiley, 35, and a friend. Earle H. Allen, chief of Delaware County detectives, said the mother had been taken into custody and that she would be charged with murder.

HARRISBURG (P)—The House has been asked to pass legislation requiring door knobs on both sides of closet doors.

A bill, introduced yesterday by two Philadelphia Democrats, would fix penalties of $100 or 30 days in jail. It was prompted by the death of a 4-year-old girl at Bellmawr, N. J., whose body was found inside a closet.

Today's Talk

JUST TODAY

I wonder why it is that so many people keep living their yesterdays, often embellishing others in their talk that should have died with the day of happening. We have a bright new day every twenty-four hours. Let us keep living it as though it were to be our last!

Every day of my life is filled with wonder. I look out upon a pair of starlings hovering close to each other in a slender branch just about my library window. I have often wondered what they were thinking about in the cold. Each day they are fed, for they are very useful about a yard later on.

When this Talk was written the scene outside my window was like a fairland, with the snow glistening in the early sunlight, and shadows creeping in all directions. I always like Just Today, and I am more interested in it than any day that is gone, with its problems, sorrows and disappointments. I save the happy hours, however. They are the only ones that should be recorded.

Why is it we so often fail to make Just Today the one of all our lives? I often think of a line in the little autograph album of my youth that a teacher of mine inscribed there, and of which I was so proud. She wrote: "This day will never dawn again!" It sounded so significant then, and the memory of it still is significant.

Why do we spot up all our new days with the failures of yesterday. The mocking birds are singing in the southland, and I have saved them in my heart of memories. Soon the buds will begin to bloom in this northland — and spring is "just around the corner!" Soon many a songster will return and each new day will have revelations all its own. God still is in His Heaven!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On the Way Up" Protected, 1957, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

RAIMENT

No pride have I in high silk hats,

I like the comfortable old,

To raiment gay and pearl gray spats

My heart and mind are strangely cold.

I like tedoras faded gray,

The trousers thick with garden clay.

Give me the faded flannel shirt

Which summer sun has turned to brown,

The shoes that crusted are with dirt

And I to work can settle down,

Come weather cold or weather warm,

I want no medalled uniform.

I wear a dress suit when I must,

I fall for fashion's pressing urge,

But I am happier when I just

Put on a business suit of serge.

Nor do I greatly care that day

If it be brown or blue or gray.

I know my name will not appear

Upon the list of best dressed men.

Though it's been voted for year by year,

It's never made the upper ten.

Should women stop at me at stare,

It won't be for the things I wear.

GUIDEPOSTS

CONFESSIONS OF AN OPTIMIST

By THOMAS B. COSTAIN

Author Of "The Silver Chalice"

I am an optimist.

I am sure that all the adjectives which usually are inserted before that word, such as "foolish,"

"rash," and even

"rank," can be applied to me. I have taken many

a leap before allowing myself a good look; and,

although I have had my falls,

most of the

plunges have turned out well.

I have little respect for Slow-and-Steady as a winner of races;

certainly the tortoise would never have won if the hare had not been a silly, amateur show-off.

Finally, and this is where the mentioned adjectives lose all meaning, I am unreservedly and blissfully convinced that some, at least, of the finer things in life are as sure as death and taxes.

For 70 Years

I have been an optimist for 70 years. I suppose I was born one.

I haven't changed although there have been times when there seemed little to be optimistic about.

A year ago last May I celebrated my 70th birthday, and it proved a most pleasant day, without any misgivings or repinings or grumbings. In the morning I had looked into a bathroom mirror and had said to myself, "Seventy years old and don't yet look a day over 80," but the members of my family and my friends assured me rather vehemently that I did not look my age. If they are right — and I hope they are — it is due in part at least to my having kept a cheerful outlook.

Perhaps I should explain that I am not one of those who can remain cheerful while the house

burns down or an epidemic is sweeping the neighborhood. I worry, secretly, about trifles like an unkind letter, a thoughtless word.

Of No Consequence

I realize all through these little downward dips in mood that they are of no consequence, that I am foolish to indulge in them, and that I will be through with them in an hour or two; but they go on occurring, and I can do nothing about them.

I am convinced that all writers are optimists whether they concede the point or not. This applies even to those who produce stark and grimly realistic work. How otherwise could any human being sit down before a pile of blank sheets and decide to write, say,

200,000 words on a given theme?

I know that all of my essays into print have needed the impetus of a strong form of blind faith.

This was particularly true of "The Silver Chalice."

Little Authentic Material

It was clear to me from the beginning that the story in my mind would consume a quarter million words in the telling. I knew that no amount of effort would yield much authentic material about certain important phases. Never has a period been so ardently searched and researched and voluminously written about with such small rewards in the way of proven fact.

The Bible tells us about John the Apostle but what is known about

John the man? Who can say how the people lived in the Valley of the Cheesemakers and how justice was administered in Antioch?

It is, moreover, a time which, rightly, is held sacred. A careless word can give deep offense, and it is impossible to please all the races and widely differing creeds.

Criticized And Praised

It seemed to me certain also that the book which would result from my efforts would be woefully

All-Star Boys, Girls Teams Picked By County Coaches; Awards Presented; Bubblers Officially End Court Tieup

All-star squads selected by coaches for the boys' and girls' divisions of the Adams County Basketball League were announced at the spring meeting of the Adams County Scholastic League which was held Monday evening at Big Spring High School, Newville.

Individual gold basketballs were awarded to those selected for the squads.

Instead of 10 usually chosen for the boys' all-star group, 13 were picked when five tied for the ninth and 10 places.

Boys' All-Stars

The boys' squad follows: Jan Sponseller, New Oxford; Albert Snyder, Littlestown; Dean Vaughn, Bolling Springs; William Haverstick, East Berlin; Kenneth Koonz, Littlestown; Donald Rice, Biglerville; James Smallwood, Biglerville; Edward Griffie, Big Spring; Robert Hammann, Bolling Springs; James Cashman, York Springs; Larry Shilito, Biglerville; Franklin Oiler, Big Spring, and James Muselman, Fairfield.

Fifteen girls instead of 12 were named to girls' all-star squad when four deadlocked in the voting for 12th place.

Girls Selected

Selections follow: Nina Shank, Fairfield; Dorothy Myers, Fairfield; Geraldine Roberts, Littlestown; Edna Ealy, Littlestown; Susan Blocher, Littlestown; Ann Brennan, Bolling Springs; Joyce Ebbert, Biglerville; Barbara Rice, Biglerville; Gloria Burgoon, Littlestown; Rhoda Brough, York Springs; Phyllis Rimmel, Littlestown; Mary Fair, Fairfield; Judy Ruggles, Littlestown; Joyce Barnes, Littlestown; and Evelyn Yagie, Big Springs.

Paul Stone, Big Spring principal, president of the league, presided at the dinner-meeting which was attended by 55 representatives from the schools.

Trophies were presented to the championship teams by John McAndrews, Fairfield, chairman of the trophy committee. Mrs. Mary K. Sentz, coach of the Littlestown girls who won their division crown, accepted that trophy and Charles L. Yost, Biglerville principal, accepted the boys' championship award. George Houck, Big Spring mentor, received the sportsmanship plaque.

Twelve members of the Littlestown girls' team and 10 of the Biglerville boys' squad also received individual gold basketballs.

Bolling Springs officially withdrew from competition in the boys' and girls' leagues but will continue as a member of the baseball league. Bolling Springs will play in Section 1 of the Lower Susquehanna Basketball League next year. It was decided at Lower Susquehanna conference meeting Monday night. The Bubblers will replace Highspire, which has become part of a new jointure with Steelton.

Girls' Loop May Fold

After announcement was made that Big Spring will drop girls' basketball it was decided to have other schools get in touch with their school boards next month to determine their opinion on whether girls' basketball should be retained or dropped. It was revealed that Fairfield and Littlestown wish to continue girls' competition while Biglerville and York Springs are undecided. East Berlin and New Oxford dropped girls' basketball prior to the past season.

The Littlestown High School boys' jayvee team was recognized as the mythical champion of that division for the past season.

Drop Field Day

A decision to drop the annual Adams County Field Day was reached after a poll revealed most schools were opposed to its continuation.

HERB SCORE STILL WITH CLEVELAND

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians still had pitcher Herb Score today, while the Boston Red Sox kept their million dollars and Hank Greenberg headed for Lakeland, Fla., to talk trade with the Detroit Tigers. Greenberg, Cleveland general manager, and Joe Cronin, ditto for the Red Sox, casually talked in million-dollar terms yesterday. "We had just a short talk, and it concerned the possibility of a trade," said Greenberg, when asked about Cronin's million-dollar offer for Score, Cleveland's 20-game winner.

Probably Worth A Million
"Cronin told me that what the Red Sox needed was a good, first-line pitcher and that Score would probably be worth a million dollars to the Red Sox."

"Then I said to him, 'You mean you'd really give a million dollars for Score?'"
"Cronin said he would."

The Cleveland official advised Cronin he was out to build up the Indians, not tear them down.

"Take That Back"
Cronin, whose Red Sox, with the Indians, are the main contenders against the Yankees, confirmed he had made the offer for Score.

"We tried to make a deal with Cleveland and haven't been able to work anything out," he said. "Finally I said to Greenberg, 'There's only one thing I can do. That is to offer you a million dollars for Herb Score. Take that back to your board of directors.'"

AMOS 'N' ANDY STARTING 30TH YEAR ON RADIO

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Amos 'N' Andy — the two fellows Marconi may have heard when he first tinkered with radio — today began their 30th year of continuous broadcasting.

And, they are happy to say, never without a sponsor — and never with an off-color line.

The nation first heard of Amos (Freeman Gosden) and Andy (Charles Correll) on station WMAQ, Chicago, back in the days of the crystal set.

Heyday In '30's
Actually, they had broadcast as early as 1920 — a fact that gave rise to the Marconi gag. But then they were known as am 'n' Henry, a name by which they gained early prominence over WGN, Chicago.

The WGN contract forbade them to use "Sam 'n' Henry" on another station — and that's how "Amos 'n' Andy" were born.

Probably no other entertainers in history ever achieved the popularity the two did during their heyday in the 30s. On a warm summer evening, it was possible to take a 15-minute walk and never miss a word of their program. It seemed as if it blared out of every open window.

Once the script had Amos about to become a father. The two wrangled about a name but could not agree. They decided to ask the listeners and an ever-present advertising man suggested that the name should be written on a box-top from their sponsor's toothpaste.

ACCUSE MOTHER OF HOMICIDE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Ridley Park, Pa., mother whose four-year-old daughter died Sunday has been charged with homicide. Police said she admitted beating the child.

Mrs. Jean Wiley, 35, was committed to Broadmeadows Prison in Delaware County after a hearing before Magistrate Albert Cross yesterday.

Chief of County Detectives Earle H. Allen said Mrs. Wiley told him she beat the child, Barbara Jean, with a stick because she became displeased with her while giving the youngster a bath Sunday night.

Allen quoted Mrs. Wiley as saying she became alarmed when the child began acting strangely afterwards and sought the help of a neighbor, Walter Bynow. Mrs. Wiley and Bynow brought Barbara Jean to Taylor Memorial Hospital in Ridley Park where she was pronounced dead.

Mrs. Wiley's husband is an oiler on a tanker now at sea. The Wileys have one other child, Lou Ann, 9.

BONNIE QUINT, MEMPHIS STATE WIN NIT GAMES

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK (AP) — A couple of fired-up unseeded teams, St. Bonaventure and Memphis State, took the play away from Seattle University's highly touted Elgin (Rabbit) Baylor in the National Invitation basketball tourney last night.

Baylor was a disappointment in his first New York appearance as the Bonnies drubbed Seattle 85-68 after Memphis State had walloped Manhattan 85-73.

St. Bonaventure and Memphis State thus advanced to Thursday's semifinals. By the luck of the draw, they will oppose each other.

The round of four will be completed tonight when second-seeded Bradley meets Xavier of Ohio and Temple meets Dayton at Madison Square Garden.

The Bonnies overcame an early 10-4 Seattle lead and poured it on to shatter Seattle's 18-game winning streak. Memphis State did the same thing against Manhattan.

Baylor Tired

Baylor, a 6-6 high school star in Washington, D.C., before he entered Seattle, was downcast in the dressing room. He had fouled out after scoring 23 points but his floor work and passing were poor. "I was tired," he said. "I couldn't seem to catch my breath. I don't know what was the matter."

Eddie Donovan, Bonnie coach, was overwhelmed with congratulations.

"McCann was tremendous," he beamed, referring to 6-2 Brendan McCann. "I had McCann play in front of Baylor and he did a tremendous job. The other boys were great too."

Thanks to five straight field goals by Angelo Lombardo, Manhattan broke a 10-10 tie to take a 22-14 lead early in the first game. But Memphis State went on a tear of its own to gain the lead at 28-27 on Win Wilfong's goal under the net. The Tigers never yielded the lead after that.

EVANGELICAL GROUP WINS COURT ORDER

ROME (AP) — Italy's Constitutional Court has ruled unconstitutional a police regulation that controlled Protestant religious gatherings. This decision by the nation's highest tribunal marked a victory for evangelical groups who had long sought to have the police regulation set aside.

Through it, police had insisted that religious meetings of evangelical groups open to the public could be held only after police permission had been obtained for them.

The regulation did not apply to the Roman Catholic Church, whose relations with the Italian state are regulated by the Lateran pacts, signed in 1929.

Violates Section

The police rule had been fought by the Assemblies of God, the Church of Christ and other evangelical groups with backing from their followers in the United States.

The high court ruled the police regulation was constitutionally illegitimate because it conflicts with Article 17 of the nation's constitution.

Article 17 says that "all citizens have the right to reunite peacefully and without arms," and that "for reunions, even those open to the public, no prenotification is necessary."

Red Asks Confab On Middle East

MOSCOW (AP) — Russian Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev has called for a Middle East conference as an immediate step toward relaxing world tensions.

He did not name the countries he thought should participate, but apparently meant something similar to the 1954 Geneva conference on Indochina. Khrushchev said that meeting eased world tensions for a time.

The party leader's statement was made in reply to questions from the Grand Rapids, Mich., Herald. The exchange was given prominent front-page space in today's Moscow newspapers.

Responding to the letter from the Herald's managing editor, Charles L. Clapp, Khrushchev declared a U.S. "policy of strength" is endangering world peace.

TWO ROOKIES PUSH FRANCONA

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Outfielder Tito Francona, last year's spring training hero of the Baltimore Orioles, may have cause for alarm in the performance of two rookies this season.

Last year Francona slugged his way into the Orioles' starting lineup by leading the team in hitting during the exhibition schedule. But this year Tito has only three hits in 19 trips to the plate. Meanwhile, rookie outfielders Joe Durham and Carl Powis are making a strong bid for regular jobs.

Durham is leading the club with a .500 average in nine exhibition games and Powis is right behind with a .462 average. Powis has three doubles in 13 plate appearances and Durham has just returned from service and can be carried free on the roster for one year.

SYRACUSE NATS BEAT WARRIORS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Syracuse Nationals hurdled the opening round of the Eastern Division playoffs in the National Basketball Assn. and the Minneapolis Lakers will attempt to eliminate the Pistons in a Western Division series tonight at Fort Wayne.

With Philadelphia Warrior ace Paul Arizin benched because of a thigh injury, the Nationals made it two straight in the best-of-three series last night at Syracuse, winning 91-80. Arizin, the league's top scorer, played three minutes at the start.

Lakers Need Win

This qualified Syracuse for the best of eight finals against the Boston Celtics opening in Boston Thursday night. The teams meet again Saturday at Syracuse in a nationally televised game.

Philadelphia, defending champion, led 37-35 at halftime, but John Kerr led a Nat rally that sent his team ahead 58-53 as the third period closed.

Kerr got 22 points and Dolph Schayes 19 for the winners, and Joe Grabowski had 16 for Philadelphia.

Minneapolis, a 131-127 winner Sunday night, can clinch the best-of-three Western series by winning tonight. If a third game is necessary it will be played Wednesday at Minneapolis.

Plans 25th Flight Across Atlantic

WASHINGTON (AP) — Max Conrad, king of the small-plane pilots, said today he will attempt his 25th light-plane solo crossing of the North Atlantic next weekend.

At the same time the 54-year-old Conrad disclosed plans to fly a World War II P38 fighter to Spain, and afterward to attempt the first light-plane flight from San Francisco to Hawaii.

Conrad, who has flown more small planes across greater reaches of open water than any other man, said he is calling his forthcoming flight to Paris "my silver anniversary trip."

"On the first four or five flights things went wrong and I had troubles," Conrad said. His first was in September 1950.

"Since then I have given each new plane a 20-hour shakedown in the U.S. before setting out, and have had no difficulty."

FATHER OF NINE KILLED IN CRASH

LEWISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Roy E. Swineford, 68, an electrical appliance repairman and father of nine children, was killed yesterday in the collision of his station wagon and a tractor-trailer truck at an intersection in nearby Burnham.

John T. Nicholson, 56, of Lewistown, a repairman riding with Swineford, was injured and reported in critical condition at Lewistown Hospital. He suffered a skull fracture and multiple other fractures.

Derry wp. police identified the truck driver as Wilson H. Garris, 38, of Kane. Police quoted Garris as saying he entered the intersection with a green light and that the station wagon drove into his path.

HARRISBURG (AP) — A House committee has approved a resolution asking the secretary of highways to examine safety conditions on a section of roadway between Nanticoke and Franklin Brewery Hill in Hanover Twp., Luzerne County.

The resolution, adopted last night, said there had been 40 accidents and 7 fatalities on the stretch of road in the past five years. It asks the Highways Department to install medial barriers and additional guard rails.

DON HOAK MAY WIN HOT CORNER WITH DODGERS

By JOHN CHANDLER
The Associated Press
Don Hoak who played off and on at third base for two years with the Brooklyn Dodgers and for 121 games with the Chicago Cubs last year, seemed a good bet today to land the hot corner job this season with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts has been using Alex Grammas, who also performs at third, at shortstop lately, and this could be half the Cincinnati infield lineup on opening day.

Hoak, 29, batted in three runs yesterday as the Redlegs defeated the Boston Red Sox 7-6 in 10 innings at Sarasota, Fla. With the bases loaded in the eighth, Hoak singled to drive in two runs and tie the score at 5-5. Then in the 10th after Jerry Lynch's pinch hit triple and a walk to Johnny Temple, Hoak singled again. Another score came home on an infield out.

5 Games Monday

Sunday, Hoak got 3-for-3 against the New York Yankees.

Last fall Hoak, pitcher Warren Hacker and outfielder Pete Whisenant were swapped by Chicago to Cincinnati for third baseman Ray Jablonski and pitcher Elmer Singleton.

Exhibition activity was limited to five games yesterday.

A three-bagger in the 10th inning by Mike Baxes scored Johnny Groth and produced a 4-3 victory for the Kansas City Athletics over the Pittsburgh Pirates at West Palm Beach, Fla. Dale Long and Bill Virdon homered for the Pirates.

7 Unearned Runs

Detroit shortstop Harvey Kuenn made three errors and the Brooklyn Dodgers scored seven unearned runs in the first two innings to defeat the Tigers 8-1 in a night game at Miami. Don Newcombe, making his first appearance since the Dodgers visited Japan last fall, allowed two hits in two innings and was credited with the victory.

At Bradenton, Fla., Andy Pafko belted a three-run homer in the eighth inning, his second of the spring, to break a 3-all tie as the Milwaukee Braves took a 7-3 verdict from the St. Louis Cardinals.

Whitey Ford and Art Ditmar of the Yankees, combined their mound talents to shut out the Philadelphia Phillies 5-0 on three hits.

Open Suez Canal For Smaller Ships

SUEZ (AP) — Egypt's Suez Canal Authority announced today that ships up to 1,000 tons can begin going through the canal today.

Egypt opened the waterway, blocked during the British-French-Israeli invasion last fall, to ships of less than 300 tons early this month. Later it was opened to ships of up to 500 tons.

U. N. salvage teams expect to have the waterway cleared for ships of maximum size by April 10.

"TOUGH ONES"

DETROIT (AP) — A hole was cut in the roof of an auto supply store here and two safes bore the marks of determined but futile efforts to break in. In a typewriter was a note: "You have tough safes."

Vary that omelet! You can serve it with Spanish sauce, mushrooms, smoked salmon, cheese or jelly.

Yank Hurlers Pitch 24 Scoreless Innings

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies helped run the scoreless pitching of the New York Yankees to 24 innings and their second straight shutout when they were blanked, 5-0, on three hits yesterday.

The Phillies managed two hits off Whitey Ford and one off Art Ditmar, recently acquired from Kansas City.

Bobby Shantz, who came to the Yanks along with Ditmar, and Bob Grim combined to shutout the Cincinnati Redlegs on Sunday.

The only ruckus raised by the Phillies was when Richie Ashburn was ejected from the game in the second inning. Richie, who got the heave-ho only once in his National League career, has been sent to the bench twice during the Grapefruit season, both times by American League umpires.

Three Simple Steps To Success With Glass

STEP NO. 1: To make a satisfactory cut on glass, hold the cutter between the index finger and second finger. Support both by thumb, so that the tips of the fingers and thumb contact the stem of the cutter.

STEP NO. 2: Draw the flat face of the cutter along a straight edge that is dampened on one side to prevent slipping. Draw the cutter toward you, and press down firmly and evenly in a steady stroke from one edge to the other.

STEP NO. 3: To snap open your cut, place the ruler or yardstick under the glass at the point where it is scored and apply equal pressure on both sides of the score. Follow these instructions carefully for a clean, accurate cut of glass.

GLASS CUTTING OPERATIONS ARE NOW MADE EASY

Glass cutting is a very simple operation for the home handyman. Practice of a few helpful hints can develop your skill to the point where you will undertake glazing broken windows, cutting counter tops, glass for picture frames, shelving, etc.

For all practical purposes, a bronze bearing wheel-type cutter should be used.

Several steps should be taken before the glass cutting operation begins. First, clean the surface of the glass so it is free from dirt and water. Be certain there is solid support under the cutter.

Can Cool Glass

By dipping the cutter wheel into some kerosene or similar light oil the glass can be cooled as it is being scored.

To make a satisfactory cut on glass, hold the cutter between the index finger and second finger. Both are supported by the thumb so that the tips of the fingers and thumb contact the stem of the cutter. When held in this manner, it is simple to scribe a straight line cut, starting from the farthest edge of the glass.

The flat face of the cutter should be drawn along the edge of a straight-edge that is dampened on one side to prevent slipping. Draw the cutter toward you and press down firmly and evenly in a steady stroke from one edge to another.

The cut should be opened and run before another cut is put on the glass. One cut should almost never intersect another. You should scribe and snap each cut successively.

Snapping or opening small cuts from a quarter to a half-inch in width may be effected with the use of a pair of wide jaw pliers. Line plier jaws with score. Do not attempt to cut off a strip narrower than the thickness of the glass.

When snapping larger cuts, place the ruler or yardstick under the

PANELING IS CONVENIENCE

Spring "clean-up times" in many homes, spotlights the urgent need for more storage space for those many items of household, sports, and hobby gear that must be kept on hand, but which are creating an unsightly "clutteration" in basement, attic, utility or "family room."

On the other hand, the "clean-up" mood may lead to the discarding of many articles that have been stored far beyond their span of possible usefulness. This quite often creates the opportunity to finish off additional living space in basement or attic.

In either case, the judicious use of paneling may well provide a very happy solution to the problem. Home owners, who are handy with tools can often do much of the work themselves, and thus secure a result that is both pleasing to the eye and utilitarian at relatively small cost.

There are four main kinds of wood paneling from which the homeowner may choose the one most suitable to his purpose: softwood boards, hardwood boards, hardwood plywood and softwood plywood.

To achieve a unique effect in room decoration, choose wood paneling with lots of curls and swirls—patterns formed in the grain by the growing trees.

glass at the point where it is scored and apply equal pressure on both sides of the score.

Gardens Make A Three-Way Contribution To Home Life

There are three principal uses for the average garden: (1) to supply cut flowers to decorate the table and home, (2) to make the property beautiful, and (3) to provide a comfortable area in which the home owner can enjoy his hobby of growing plants.

In starting from scratch, the garden may consist of perennial plants, which need not be renewed each year, or from seeds, or small potted plants available in every locality.

There are many kinds of perennials, of which chrysanthemum, delphinium, phlox and hollyhocks are probably the most outstanding. Chrysanthemums have the advantage of producing flowers late in the season when little else is blooming.

Tall Plants In Center

Best rule for planting annuals in the average flower bed is to place the taller growing plants in the center and lower growing ones toward the sides until the edge of the bed is reached.

In growing both perennials and annuals, preparation of the bed is important. They will grow best in a good loam. Spade to a depth of eight inches and pulverize the soil by forking it over several times. Rake the top two inches so the soil is fine. Add fertilizer as described on its container.

If seeds are planted the soil should be especially fine. After planting, whether it be seeds or plants, soak the soil with water. Do not allow young plants to dry out, but do not keep them continuously wet.

Good rule is to water well and then let the bed alone until it shows evidence of being dry. Cultivation of the soil between plants will help to preserve its water content.

75 Is Cold When It's Hot Outside

How cold should it be inside when it's blazing hot outside?

According to a good-sized group of citizens who have lived with and in year-round air conditioned homes for the past three years, most of them like it between 70 and 75 degrees.

A nationwide gas industry (American Gas Association) survey of homes equipped with gas all-year air conditioning reveals that 55 per cent of the owners of homes with controlled atmosphere like to set their thermostats at between 70 and 75 degrees when it's hot outside. Thirty-four per cent set the dial between 75 and 80 degrees and only 9 per cent for 70 degrees or lower.

Of course, there are always those who can't get warm enough. Two per cent said they liked the home temperature over 80 degrees.

Raising Fund For Community

There will also be displays of the seven gas appliances for the home: Gas cooking, water heating, refrigerator, clothes dryer, incinerator, gas heat for the home and "all year" air conditioning.

Purpose of the Builders' Show is to raise funds for the Exchange Club to continue its community service projects. Since the club was chartered seven years ago—March, 1950—it has contributed to many community undertakings in addition to annual fund raising drives of the Community Chest and other charitable organizations. It built the tennis courts for the Recreation Park, set up neighborhood playgrounds, aided the hospital, gave a set of Encyclopedia Britannica to the Hoffman Orphanage and performed many other services for Gettysburg.

In addition to President Shaffer, the present officers of the club are: Vice president, Carl Prosser; secretary, Crosby N. Hartzell, and treasurer, Alexis Chritzman. The club has 40 members.

Full-length mirrors are almost a "must" in the modern home; usually they are placed in the doors on bedroom and coat closets, where they facilitate "last minute check-ups" of attire by family and guests.

Begin With Good Plan If You Want Finest Results From Landscaping Your Home

Good landscaping of the home grounds starts with a good plan. The simplest way for most people is to have a local landscape nurseryman lay out a very simple planting design. Then all the home owner has to do is order the plants recommended and have them set on the ground in their proper locations where he can plant them himself according to directions.

To help you in deciding, there are several things your landscaping should accomplish: (1) you should have a center of interest; (2) you want to create a beautiful picture both outside and from within the house as you look out, and (3) house and sky and earth should be tied together in a way to give pleasure to everyone. Other things your landscaping should provide are privacy, beautiful flowers and foliage all year around, as well as a certain amount of home fruit.

Plant Groupings

Groupings of plants often add to the attractiveness of the picture as a whole. If you have a one-story house, low-growing trees and shrubs are preferable.

Your center of interest may be a beautiful tree. Do not place it in the center of the lawn, which usually is better left open to grass.

Along the street, you may have groupings of trees or tall shrubs at the corners of the property. They may be tied together with low-growing plants, or a hedge. Lower growing shrubs will soften an abrupt change from lawn to tree, if planted around the tree.

MUCH BEAUTY IN LITTLE SPACE: You don't need wide expanses of garden to add a refreshing touch of beauty to your property. Beside a wall, or against the house, you can interplant pansies with other flowers, perhaps tucking in a few stately tulips or Holland bulbs next fall to complete a picture that will delight the eye with its bright colors and quiet charm.

Don't overplant. Allow for the growth of trees and shrubs. Do not plant them too thickly unless you wish immediate effect and intend to thin them out in a few years. Planting in gentle curves is better than in straight lines.

Foundation Plantings

In relation to the foundation planting, you desire first to frame the home. A low tree, surrounded by a grouping of shrubs often is

Newest Wallpapers Rich In Decorating Possibilities

One of the easiest and least expensive ways to create a 1957 model out of a well-loved but slightly older home is to try a few decorating tricks with the new wallpapers. You can make the walls of any room look like something entirely different from what they originally were — just by using wallpaper. And, for very little money.

Today's wallpapers are designed to go anywhere in the house. The designs are simple. There is a fine sense of freedom and openness in the way many freely sketched drawings are widely spaced on light backgrounds. Today's wallpapers take easily to contemporary furnishings or to a combination of contemporary and traditional.

Wallpaper can solve the problem of an unattractive and uneven wall — one with the old fashioned frame panels, for example. Put up lightweight wallboard over the entire wall, brush on a glue size, and decorate with a colorful wallpaper.

To add a colorful and dramatic note in the living room and to separate it from the dining area, cover a three-paneled screen with picturesque wallpaper.

In the kitchen that includes a dining area, it is easy to create the effect of "another room" in the latter with wallpaper.

Even one small touch of wallpaper, imaginatively used, can turn almost any room from drabness to a fresh new look. And, with such a wide variety of wallpapers to choose from, you can create any mood.

PAINT WORKS WONDERS FOR MANY HOMES

The next best thing to building a new home is decorating an old one. New paint can make old rooms look bigger, cheer up dark corners, lend fresh life to furniture, draperies and rugs.

Today's small homes can be stretched out a size or two by careful color selection. Paint a very small room a very light color. Use pale neutrals or pastel shades. Light blue, for example, makes a room look much larger. And when you're matching drapery, rugs or furniture, pick lighter colors that match to make walls march right off into space.

Interior decorators and psychologists have pooled their knowledge and come up with color suggestions that can bring restfulness to bedrooms, sparkling freshness to kitchens and new beauty to dreary rooms.

Think About Color

There are several ways to start thinking about color. You may start with a basic drapery or rug color, and select complementary colors. Or you may have a north or south exposure that needs cheering up or toning down.

In the living room particularly, many homeowners select colors that harmonize with the color of their rugs. If your rug is gray, for instance, ideal color combinations are dark brown, yellow-green or shell pink walls.

If your rug is green, paint walls lemon yellow, light gray or lighter pastel green. For tan rugs, platinum blue, peach or light tan are matching colors.

Dove Gray Walls

If your furniture or draperies are mostly gold color, start your painting with dove gray walls; or select plum or straw yellow. Blues, light browns and peach go well with rust fabrics. In general, the idea is to find colors that contrast well with your basic shades, or are complementary.

Paint children's rooms with bright, cheerful reds, yellows and blues. Give them their share of color fun right from infancy. Use bright, plaid bedspreads, dress up the furniture, paint floors and walls light pastels or shades, never dark colors.

It's fun to use your own imagination and ingenuity to bring new color combinations to your home.

DECORATORS' ITEMS

Venetian blinds are today entering the category of "decorators' items." They come in a wide range of colors and color combinations and in an interesting variety of finishes: spatter, mother-of-pearl, wood grain, linen and lace.

POUR WITHOUT SPLASHING

When pouring liquids such as turpentine and shellac from square gallon cans having a spout in one corner, hold the can so that the opening or spout is at the top when the can is in pouring position.

POWER TOOLS ARE RENTABLE

Many a "home handyman" would be more inclined to tackle certain major repair or remodeling projects, if he had the necessary power tools to make such jobs less laborious and time-consuming.

Yet, if he does not expect to use the special tool involved beyond the project currently contemplated, he may not wish to make the necessary outlay for its purchase. In this case, an investigation of local sources and rates for power tool rental may well prove worth while.

In much the same manner as floor-finishing machines, wallpaper streamers and the like are available for rental from hardware stores, paint stores and building supply dealers, a wide variety of power and special purpose machines can usually be hired by the day or week, often from one of these same sources, or in other cases from special tool-renting companies.

More than 90 standard sizes of Thermopane insulating glass are made to fit the most popular types of window sash.

attractive at each corner, tied together by low, spreading evergreens and low flowering plants at the base of the house.

Flowering shrubs have the added advantage of supplying cut flowers for the home. Roses and similar plants not only blend well but serve that purpose. A living fence of floribunda roses may make a striking property division line.

MORE LIVING SPACE

One of the simplest ways for the homeowner to add year-round living space to his home is to enclose a back or side porch. The cost is much less than would be involved in complete new construction. Present porch posts often may be used as part of the framing and the electrical wiring may be already in place too.

HOW MUCH WALLPAPER?

It's simple to guess number of rolls you need for any room. Here's how: Measure perimeter and height of room. Multiply perimeter by height, and divide by 30 to get number of rolls you'll need. You can deduct one single roll for every two windows or doors, but it's best to have a bit extra around, just in case.

You can count on a pound of cheddar cheese making about four cups when it is grated.

The Brighton: Handsome, Roomy Ranch House

Rooms	Six
Bedrooms	Three
Closets	Eight
Cubage
House	21,900
Garage	3,000
Dimensions	42' x 26'

In addition to its all-modern kitchen, a spacious dining room and living room, the Brighton also boasts three good-sized bedrooms. These, plus the wealth of centrally located storage space, put this well-planned little house up near the top of the "best planned" list.

Clapboards are suggested for the exterior finish of the house.

Measuring 42 by 26 feet, the Brighton has a cubage of 21,900 feet. The garage has a cubage of 3,000 feet. At least a 60-foot lot would be required for both the house and attached garage. One step leads to the recessed weather protection for visitors to the Brighton. The front door opens into an entry hall which has a large coat closet at its further end. At the left of the hall is an archway to the dining room; the living room is on the right.

The large picture window, flanked by narrow casement windows, does a lot to "dress up" the appearance of the dining room. Measuring 11 by 10 feet, the dining room is large enough for the attractive arrangement of a conventional size dining room set and buffet. Mrs. Homemaker won't have any trouble whatsoever putting that corner china cabinet to good use.

Also featuring a good-sized picture window flanked by narrow casement windows, as in the dining room, the living room's decorative appearance is further enhanced by the fireplace in the center of the right wall. Vying with the dining room for honors as the most attractive room in the house, the living room is 16 feet in length, and 13 feet 6 inches in width — large enough for a variety of friendly social gatherings.

Conveniently Located

Conveniently located next to the dining room, the kitchen is so planned as to make the job of meal preparation as easy and pleasant as possible. Work counters are arranged in an L pattern along the right and back walls in this 11 by 10 foot room. The stove should be placed at the right end of the working counters, beside the hallway entry to the kitchen. Place the refrigerator against the opposite wall where it will be near the work counter surface.

BETTER LIGHTS ARE NEEDED IN MOST HOMES

For the sake of comfort, beauty, and safety, give lighting a place in your "Operation Home Improvement."

Some 80 per cent of the nation's homes are woefully under par in lighting, according to the American Home Lighting Institute, trade association of fixture makers.

According to AHLI, a typical 1,200 square foot house should have at least 25 lighting fixtures worth $210. The present average is 10 fixtures worth $44.

Many aspects of home lighting can be handled by the handyman-around the house, such as replacing an old fixture with a new one, or putting a new fixture in a capped-up outlet. Other lighting tasks require an electrician.

Room-By-Room Check

To aid in planning for better home lighting, the institute suggests using this room-by-room checklist:

Living Room: At least one ceiling fixture should be provided. Score a plus for the home if it has off-center fixtures in living room corners, or if it has valance or cornice lighting above windows.

Dining Room: Whether it's a separate dining room or just a dining area, there should be a fixture provided above the space where the table will be. A good home will also provide a valance over the main window.

Bedroom: Insist on a ceiling fixture in each bedroom. Don't be fooled by a wall switch which controls a baseboard outlet. Only a ceiling fixture will provide the overhead light necessary for bedroom safety.

Kitchen: A center ceiling fixture is a must to throw light into cabinets and drawers. In addition, fixtures should be provided over the range, sink and over each work counter.

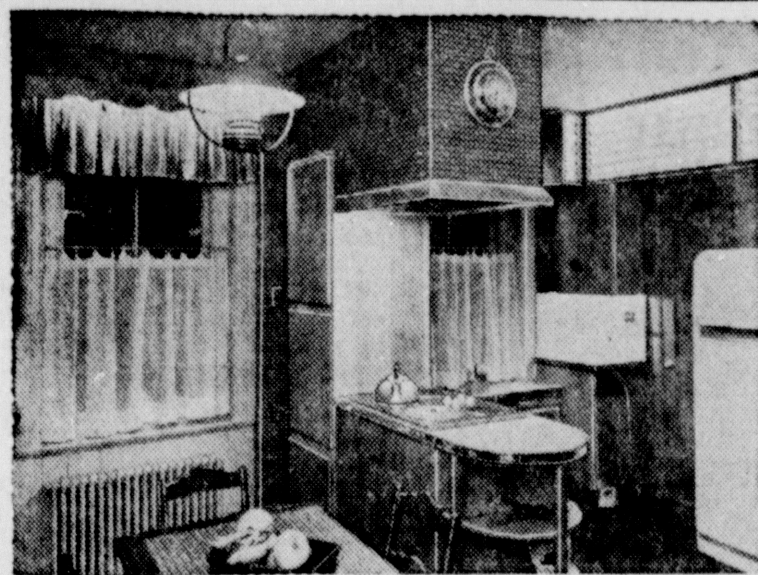

In Other Areas

Bathroom: Minimum good lighting calls for a fixture over the top and on both sides of the mirror plus a ceiling light. Mirror lighting is essential for shaving and make-up ease. If there's a stall shower, make sure it has a waterproofed ceiling light.

Closets: A ceiling or wall fixture in each closet is called for, preferably controlled by a switch that turns on the light when the door is opened.

Halls and Stairways: Each hall needs a ceiling fixture. There should also be a fixture at foot and head of stairways.

Basement: Laundry, furnace, storage, and workbench areas each

GOOD LIGHTING is combined with a colonial touch, in this kitchen, demonstrating that traditional decor need not be dark. An illuminated soffit runs around the edges of the room, lighting the walls and ceiling. Individual fixtures are placed over each counter and in the range hood. The brass lamp lights the dining table, while a lighted valance decorates the window.

HOMES TO GET MANY CHANGES DURING SPRING

In the spring a homeowner's fancy purposefully turns to thoughts of cleaning up, painting up, fixing up and lighting up his property. There's something about this season of the year (perhaps it's because Nature, herself, is blossoming forth in colorful fresh raiment) that suggests it's time for a "change of scene" on the home stage, as well.

At any rate, along with the usual springtime scouring and scrubbing just about everything that's scorable and scrubbable, there comes a certain irresistible desire to make certain "changes for the better" around the home. Result: the homeowner begins to swing into action on his own Operation Home Improvement.

Starting from the outside: Many a homeowner giving his grounds the customary spring "raking over," require separate fixtures.

Exterior: Make sure there's a light by front, rear, and side doors.

Garage: A center ceiling fixture is required.

Attic: One fixture is needed for each enclosed attic space.

For convenience and to meet adequate wiring standards, fixtures should be controlled by wall switches at room entrances. Rooms with entrances more than 10 feet apart need multiple-control switches. These are switches in different parts of the room controlling the same fixture. Thus, you can light the way ahead of you.

decides to do something about that lawn of his; maybe just touch up the bare spots or perhaps completely rebuild it. He may see how a judicious planting of shrubs will give his home a setting of year 'round beauty, or how a well-placed flower garden may add a welcome touch of color.

Consider Painting

Then he takes a look at the house itself. If it looks a bit drab on the color side, he may decide on a paint job or even new siding. He'll eye the roof critically to see if repairs are called for, or if a completely new roofing job would, after all, be best in the long run.

Proceeding indoors, and starting with the basement (after cleaning away the winter's increment of this-and-that) he thinks about waterproofing the foundation against the spring rains, he considers some built-in storage facilities to hide those unsightly pipes. While he is about it, he thinks, why not see about panelling off a space that can be used as the family rumorm room?

Redecorative Urge

As he enters the realm of upstairs, he better have his wife along, as she is sure to have her own ideas as to which rooms should be repainted or wallpapered and why and with what. It is surprising, what a comparatively small amount invested in paint or wallpaper can do to give an old room a new lease on beauty!

The "light up" phase of the program should get consideration now. It is estimated that 80% of all American homes are inadequately lighted.

Certainly the risk of impairment to vision looms large indeed in relation to the modest cost of new or additional lighting fixtures.

Winding up in the attic, our homeowner may well ask himself:

GOOD PLANNING IS CONSIDERED VERY ESSENTIAL

If your bathroom fixtures show signs of wear — cracks, leaks and discoloration — or if more than three persons in your home must depend upon one bathroom, it is time to remodel and expand your bathing facilities.

Careful planning is essential in bathroom remodeling, for this room remains completely furnished with the same fixtures in the same arrangement often for a lifetime. Thus, you should select attractive, functional fixtures arranged for privacy and convenience.

Economy also can be achieved through proper placement of fixtures. The least expensive installation of fixtures in one bathroom is along one wall.

When adding a second bathroom or powder room, economies can be realized by installing the fixtures alongside, below or above the existing bathroom fixtures or near kitchen plumbing. This allows several fixtures to be served by the same piping and in some cases cuts installation costs by as much as 30 per cent.

Promoting Privacy

For privacy, compartmenting the bathroom area is recommended. This allows multiple use of all fixtures, helping to eliminate bathroom tie-ups.

The extent to which you can partition depends upon the space available. Compartmenting an area too small will result in poor "traffic" patterns and a cut-up appearance. In this case, it is wiser to add a second bathroom or powder room.

A second complete bathroom is advisable for any family of more than three persons.

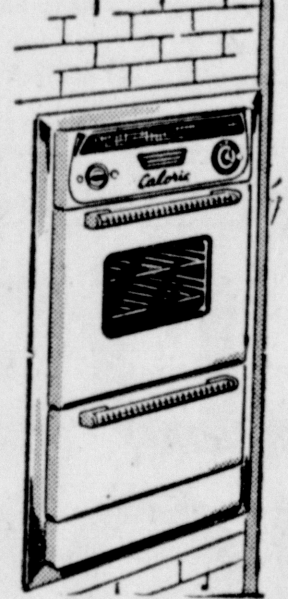

Bathroom planning experts at American-Standard recommend an area of at least 7 x 8 feet for successful compartmenting. Given a 9 x 12 foot area, several two-bathroom and one-and-a-half bathroom arrangements are possible.

A particularly useful plan places the bathtub in a "room" of its own, accessible from two areas, each of which houses a lavatory and toilet. Another popular arrangement places the tub and toilet in separate areas and a lavatory-dressing table in a third, "dressing room" area.

Prime Requirements

In selecting bathroom fixtures, beauty, durability and usefulness are prime requirements. Lavatories and toilets of nonabsorbent vitreous china are recommended for beauty, easy cleaning and sanitation. Tubs of cast iron with a thick coating of enamel give a smooth appearance.

yet no great distance from the stove. You'll find the broom closet, beside the refrigerator, a welcome storage place for your vacuum cleaner, dust cloths, mops, polishes, etc.

The back door, located in the left kitchen wall, opens on the sun deck and provides easy access to the back yard — a feature you'll especially appreciate if there are youngsters in your family. This deck can be covered, if desired.

Attached to the house, the 20 by 10 foot garage can be reached directly from this sun deck. It receives plenty of light from the window in the back wall and the one in the side wall. Screens, storm doors and garden equipment can easily be stored in this garage.

Back in the house proper, the bath opens off the hallway, just to the right of the kitchen. Large enough to hold both a shower and a tub, the bath is thoroughly modern in its fixtures and is well lighted by one window in the back wall.

Facing the hall, there is a spacious clothes closet adjacent to the doorway to the largest of the three bedrooms.

With two windows, one in the back wall and another in the right wall, plus an extra-sized closet, this 12 by 11 foot room should be used as the master bedroom. The other two bedrooms, occupying the further right wing of the house, are reached by a horizontal hall that is connected by an open archway with the central hall leading from the kitchen to the master bedroom.

An unusually large closet occupies the left end of the horizontal hall and the right end terminates in a spacious linen closet.

Roomy Closets

Both of these two bedrooms have windows on two exposures and each contains a very roomy clothes closet. These closets join with the linen closet to form a three-closet central storage area. The back bedroom measures 11 feet 4 inches by 10 while the front bedroom is 11 feet 4 inches by 11 feet, 6 inches in dimensions.

A full cement cellar is recommended for The Brighton, with the heating equipment under the living room; the laundry under the kitchen. Be sure to provide a bulkhead for direct access from the laundry to the back yard so you won't have to carry the family washing up the cellar stairs, through the house and out the back door to hang it up to dry. Have a clothes chute connected from the bathroom to the laundry and you'll have no problem bringing the clothes downstairs either.

MOST HOMES WILL BE AIR CONDITIONED IN FIVE YEARS

Most — if not all — homes built in the United States five years from today will be equipped with year-around air conditioning.

That's the consensus of a survey conducted by the air conditioning division of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association which indicates that the all-year air conditioned home has a substantially greater resale value than a comparable house without such equipment.

Eighty-two per cent of the homemakers queried by the GAMA pollsters reported that "air conditioning substantially increased the value of my home," while 17 per cent said that the gas system makes the home "somewhat more valuable."

Housewives Give Reasons

Talks with housewives in ten major population centers evoked these important reasons why all-year air conditioning improved their living habits.

Ninety per cent said that less time was needed for dusting furniture; 71 per cent reported they did less cleaning of walls and woodwork; 70 per cent reported less frequent cleaning of drapes, curtains, slip covers, rugs and upholstery; and 31 per cent said that less redecorating work was needed. Cleaning-bill savings alone ranged up to $300 a year.

The homeowners — all of whom had had gas equipment installed for a minimum of three years — decided that all-year air conditioning had contributed materially to their comfort. Among their reasons were:

Outside noise eliminated because windows are kept closed; plants grow better indoors; family more comfortable during summer; homemaker able to bake and iron in comfort during summer; more ambition for entire family during summer; fewer flies and bugs in home; no stale odors in home; basement dry all year, and furs do not need to be placed in special storage.

Choose Right Paint Brush For Each Job

Choice of the proper brush for each purpose will make painting easier, results more satisfactory. For wall painting, inside or out, use a flat straight-edge wall brush 3 to 5 inches in width. For window frames, spindles, scrollwork, etc., use a sash brush from 1 to 2 inches wide. For varnishing and enameling, use a flat varnish brush. These are usually made with chiseled or tapered edges to permit easier flow.

UNION LEADERS RESENT MOVE TO CONTROL ACTION

HARRISBURG (AP) — Leaders in Pennsylvania's four labor organizations have termed "misleading" and "arrogant and cruel" proposed legislation to control union activities.

"These bills proceed on the assumption that once a member of a union is elected to a position of trust within his organization he is immediately incapable of being honest in his handling of the diverse affairs of that organization and inconsiderate of the rights and needs of the members collectively or individually," a statement of opposition to the House bills said yesterday.

The bills would require unions to make their records public and to file financial statements with the state. They would prohibit union expulsion of members for criticism of officers and prohibit union contributions to political campaigns.

"Conceived in Hostility"

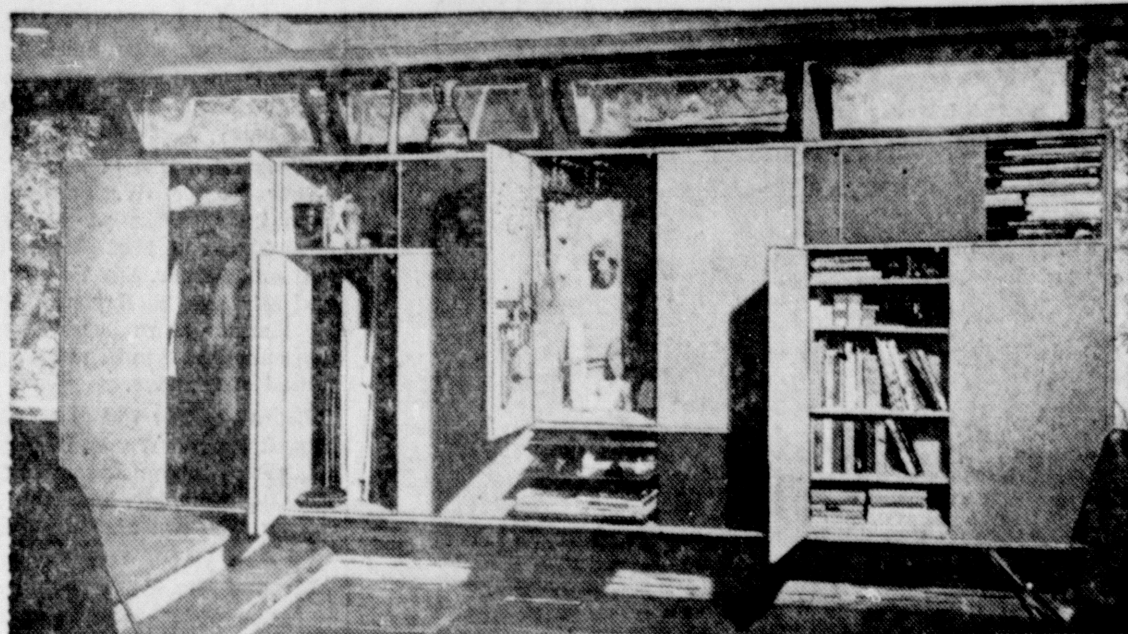

The statement in opposition was made by Joseph A. McDonough, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor; Harry Boyer, president of the Pennsylvania CIO Council; Charles J. Sludden, legislative representative for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; and Lester Thomas, legislative representative for the United Mine Workers.

They said the bills had been "conceived in violent hostility against organized labor and duly elected officials" and were "as dishonestly misleading as they are

Low-Cost Answers To Storage And Space Problems

COZY BEDROOM-DEN for a boy is developed from a sloping unused attic room, with Philippine mahogany plankwood panels.

"WHERE SHALL WE PUT IT?" is a question that is answered in a most attractive and orderly manner by this storage-wall, suitable for a basement or family room elsewhere. Four feet in width, the wall of smooth fir plywood is designed in four sections, each with a different purpose; from left to right: wardrobe, sports equipment, tools and games, books and "office."

BUILT-IN STORAGE FACILITIES can often be created in the basement by the judicious use of wood paneling, which can at the same time convert this area into attractive living space. This photo shows how closets can be designed to conceal unsightly pipes.

ALL-IN-ONE STORAGE WALL of plywood at the end of a basement recreation room houses, in addition to the items shown, a wardrobe, sewing machine, letter file and office records and provides, as well, general storage space. Douglas Fir Plywood Association.

IKE IS FEELING MUCH BETTER IN WARM SUNSHINE

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP)—President Eisenhower, described as feeling much better after three days of warm sunshine, steamed toward Bermuda today for talks with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Traveling aboard the Navy guided missile cruiser Canberra, Eisenhower is to arrive at Hamilton, Bermuda, late tomorrow. His session with Macmillan will commence Thursday and end Sunday.

The President sailed from Norfolk, Va., last Thursday evening on a meandering six-day voyage to Bermuda in a move to shake a persistent cough, a head cold and an ear inflammation.

"Most Enjoyable" From Saturday morning until last night the Canberra cruised leisurely in the quiet, sunlit waters of Exuma Bay in the Bahama Islands area. Then the warship moved around the southern tip of Cat Island and headed for Bermuda, 850 miles northeast.

Just before the Canberra moved out of Exuma Bay last night the President told the crew he was having "a most enjoyable trip."

His informal remarks from an impromptu stage on the floodlit foredeck came at the end of a "happy hour" program of entertainment put on for him by the crew.

Building Up Health Maj. Edward Snyder, White House physician aboard the Canberra, reported to newsmen on escorting destroyers that Eisenhower was doing fine in building up his health.

Snyder said the President's ear ailment has cleared up and that he now is coughing only occasionally. A head cold from which he had suffered has about disappeared.

Eisenhower smiled broadly and waved a greeting to crew members at the rails of the destroyers Wood and Barton yesterday afternoon as he circled the ships in a 5-foot motor launch.

No Luck Fishing The President, wearing a bright red cap and a tan windbreaker, was returning to the Canberra after trolling for fish off nearby Little San Salvador Island. Eisenhower was out about two hours but had no luck. His naval aide,

HANDYMEN ARE NOW TURNING TO PAINTING

Along about this time of year, many homeowners decide that one or more of their rooms could stand a "change of scene," or at the very least, a fresh bright renewal of the present color scheme.

And so simple have manufacturers made the job with their new and improved ready-mixed paints and new methods of application that most "amateur handymen" can readily wield the paint brush themselves with very satisfactory results and at a considerable saving of money.

If you follow a few basic steps, the job of wall painting can be done correctly and in a surprisingly short period of time.

First the floors should be covered with newspapers or a drop cloth to catch any paint splatters that occur as you paint the walls. Then remove all of the electrical switches and outlet plates. If the switches and plates are to be painted, paint them separately on a newspaper.

Trim Windows, Doors
Trim around the doors and windows first. For protection, speed and efficiency, use either masking tape or a trim guard. Be sure to wipe off any smears on wall surfaces with a rag to prevent lap marks from showing later on.

Whether you use a roller or a brush, spread your paint on evenly, with sweeping up-and-down strokes. If you prefer using a brush, use a 4 or 5-inch brush to apply the paint. Start each stroke where the paint is dry and work toward and into wet areas.

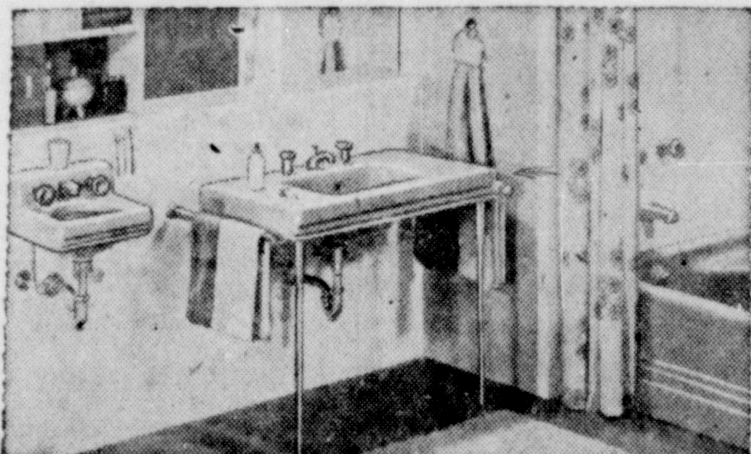

Start at an upper corner of the wall and paint an easy arm's length across, parallel to the ceiling. Then work down from ceiling to baseboard. Continue the same method across the wall, working in strips a yard or so wide so you can come back and paint into an area you've just painted.

Begin In Corner
For base boards, begin in a corner of the room. First apply paint to the center of the board, then work toward the edges. To make your cleanup job easier,

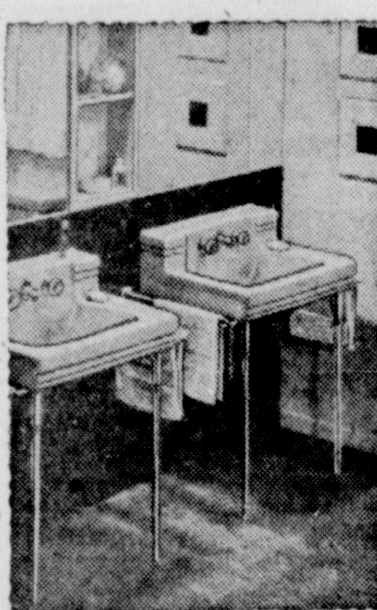

New Ideas Work Wonders For Old Bathrooms

NEW BEAUTY AND UTILITY are brought to the bath here. Daughter bathes in the "Neo-Angle" tub, in which the diagonal bathing space provides additional length in the overall 4' x 4' space and the wide ledge places accessories within easy reach. Mother takes final pre-party peak at herself in mirrors that reach to the ceiling, above new lavatory in vitreous china, with extra-wide built-in counter space. Fixtures are available in nine colors and white. By American-Standard.

EARLY MORNING TRAFFIC PROBLEMS in the bathroom are eased by the small home dental lavatory (at left) at which teeth-brushing activities can take place while some other member of the family is using the regular lavatory. Measuring only 17 inches square, the dental lavatory can readily find a place even in a rather compact bathroom layout. Both fixtures by American-Standard.

protect the floor with a drop cloth, and use masking tape or hold a trim guard or paint shield against the wall at upper edge of the baseboard.

Where walls are broken by windows or doors, start in a small area and work outward to broader areas.

When it comes to ceilings, paint in strips — the width, not the long way of the room. Keep the strips narrow. Take down fixtures and replace as you move.

DEMANDS FOR ISRAEL SUPPORT ARE MOUNTING

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional demands for firm support of Israel's position in her dispute with Egypt arose again today in the wake of Egypt's return to the Gaza Strip.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) said developments in the crisis added urgency to his advocacy of a strengthened and "permanent" United Nations Emergency Force. He spoke out in an interview after Cairo radio quoted the Egyptian-governor of Gaza as announcing all U.N. troops would leave towns within the strip within 48 hours.

"If Egyptian troops are moved in," Mansfield said, "it will create a threat to peace. If that happens, we should request an immediate, emergency session of the General Assembly to deal with the situation."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), like Mansfield a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a separate interview the United States has an "obligation" to support Israel.

Secretary of State Dulles told a closed committee yesterday the United States had made no secret promises to Israel.

Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) said Dulles told questioners no new assurances had been given Mrs.

visited on Sunday with her grand-daughter, Miss Anne Stieley, a student nurse at Franklin Square Hospital, Baltimore.

FOOT OF SNOW HITS SOME AREAS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today was the last full day of the winter season but it looked like midwinter in many northern Midwest states with the second heavy snowfall in less than a week.

Snow piled up to a foot in sections of Nebraska and South Dakota and there were lesser amounts in parts of Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan. Blizzards hit some of the same areas last Thursday and Friday.

A mixture of freezing rain, sleet and snow occurred in Lower Michigan during the night while snow fell in most of Wisconsin. Falls had ended in most areas west of the Mississippi River in Iowa and the plains although skies were overcast.

Rain or drizzle was widespread from Missouri and Illinois eastward through the Ohio Valley and southward to the South Atlantic Coast.

Golda Meir, Israeli foreign minister, in their State Department conference yesterday.

A joint statement said the United States told Israel it "stood firmly by the hopes and expectations" it previously expressed concerning the Egypt-Israel dispute. These included public statements and letters by President Eisenhower and by U.N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Dulles, pressed as to whether this country has promised to back up Israel's claim to the right of free passage of ships through the Gulf of Aqaba, was quoted by other senators as replying there were no commitments beyond the expression of "hopes and expectations" of such a development.

PRINCETON TO GET $3 MILLION

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—The late David Mahany of Greenwich, Conn., a stock broker, has willed over three million dollars to Princeton University.

Dr. Harold W. Dodds, president of the university, announced the bequest yesterday. He praised Mahany, a member of the Class of 1907, as a "wonderfully loyal and active alumnus."

Mahany's estate, totalling over $3 million dollars, was probated last Dec. 21. Mahany, who died Nov. 25 at the age of 71, bequeathed $200,000 in cash to his widow, Mrs. Georgianna S. Mahany. He also left her a house valued at $100,000 and put the rest of the estate in trust.

She is to receive the income from the trust during her lifetime. At her death the entire fund goes to Princeton. The gift is one of the largest in the university's history.

Mahany was a former president and chairman of the board of the New York stock brokerage firm of A. Gross & Co. He was a member of the Princeton Graduate Council and the governing body of the Alumni Assn.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ella Mahany Mandendorff.

MARRIED MAN, TEEN-AGE GIRL FRIEND SHOT

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—A 27-year-old married man was wounded seriously on Monday when he and his teen-age girl friend stole a pair of police pistols and attempted a daring escape from detective headquarters in City Hall.

The girl was nicked by a police bullet in the encounter.

The couple, from Syracuse, N.Y., had been picked up earlier as suspicious persons as they walked across the two-mile-long Benjamin Franklin Bridge linking Camden with Philadelphia.

They had just undergone questioning in the fifth-floor detective headquarters when, in an unguarded moment, George E. Murray seized a gun from a partially opened drawer and then another from one of the two surprised officers. Then he and 16-year-old Clara Wall pushed the pair into an anteroom and raced to an elevator down the hallway.

Greeted By Officer
Alerted by a call from Detective Anthony De Vello upstairs, a third officer, Dominic Palese greeted the pair with his own gun when the elevator reached the basement. He told Murray to surrender but, Palese said, the girl shouted:

"Shoot him, George. Shoot him!" Palese fired and the first bullet hit the girl. The second dropped Murray. Clara suffered a flesh wound of the left arm.

Syracuse police said the couple had been arrested together twice in the last year—once in Milwaukee and once in Oswego, N. Y. They said Murray, an unemployed dishwasher, is married and has a child and that he lives across the street from the girl's family.

The pair—both of whom wore dirty, mussed jeans and plaid wool shirts—told Camden police they left home a month ago and had been to Erie, Pa., and to Florida before taking jobs on a south Jersey farm near Clayton. Clara was remanded as a juvenile delinquent to the Camden County children's shelter. Murray was admitted to Cooper

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Raymond Fella, 58, of York, was killed on Sunday when he was hurled from his panel truck as he attempted to pass a car on Route 74 just outside the York city limits in Spring Garden Twp.

Township police said he lost control as the truck jumped a curb and spun around in the air. His wife, Mrs. Mary Fella, was admitted to York Hospital in satisfactory condition and her child, Lorita, 6, was in serious condition with possible fractured skull and internal injuries.

EDINBURG, Va. (AP)—Robert Poole 46, of Nottingham, Pa., was killed Monday when the car in which he was riding wrecked in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley.

Police said Poole was the passenger in a car driven by Sally Dunn of Oxford, Pa. The accident occurred at 6:20 a.m. on U.S. 11.

ABINGTON, Pa. (AP)—A 17-year-old Bucks County youth died Sunday night in Abington Memorial Hospital from injuries received in a head-on collision Saturday in Upper Moreland Twp.

He was George A. Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Beck, Warrington Twp.

Police said Beck suffered head and internal injuries when his automobile collided head-on in a heavy fog with a car driven by Kelp Thomas, 37, Huntingdon Valley.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader said Monday it is "touch and go" whether the uncompleted Northeast Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike will pay for itself. Leader made the comment in a message prepared for the Legislature to accompany submission of his Turnpike Commission revision bills.

City policemen Dan Sullivan said Klotz was accused of stealing an auto owned by Mrs. Mildred Givens of Harrisburg from in front of a downtown department store Saturday night. State police picked up Klotz' trail after the Givens' car struck a vehicle at another city street intersection.

Klotz was caught late Saturday near Indiantown Gap, about 20 miles east of Harrisburg.

LONDON (AP)—Britain is ending the rationing of diesel fuel and raising the basic gasoline ration for motorists 50 per cent, effective April 17, to permit each to drive 300 miles a month.

Oil products were put on ration last Dec. 17, after closing of the Suez Canal cut into the flow of Middle East oil to Britain.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee Monday unanimously approved President Eisenhower's nomination of Judge Charles Evans Whittaker for elevation to the Supreme Court.

The vote, taken behind closed doors, followed a public hearing at which Fyke Farmer, a Nashville Tenn. lawyer who described himself as "in sympathy with international communism," denounced Whittaker at length as "opposed to human liberty."

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—Vice President Nixon landed here Monday for his last call on a three-week trip around Africa. He came from Rome.

Nixon was greeted at the airport by Premier Habib Bourguiba; Mongi Slim, the Tunisian ambassador in Washington; and U.S. Ambassador Lewis Jones.

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan called Cabinet ministers to an urgent conference today on a 200,000-man shipyard strike paralyzing Britain's vast shipbuilding industry.

The threat of two more giant strikes—among railway and manufacturing workers—confronted the Conservative government only three days before Macmillan's Bermuda's meetings with President Eisenhower.

NIXON PLEDGES "COOPERATION" WITH ITALIANS

ROME (AP)—Vice President Nixon pledged Monday there will be "increasing consultation" between the U. S. and Italian governments on such critical mutual problems as the Middle East crisis.

Nixon spoke at a news conference just before taking off for Tunisia, last stop on his eight-nation African tour. He had flown up from Africa to see Pope Pius XII and Italian officials over the weekend.

Some Italian circles have complained that the United States, in formulating its Middle East policy, does not take into sufficient account Italy's geographic proximity to the area and her economic interests there.

Scores Red Action

Nixon said "any failure to consult which may have seemed to exist in the past" was due to the "urgent nature" of the problems. Nixon again blasted "Communist colonialism" and once more challenged the Kremlin to give its satellites the same kind of freedom Britain, France and America have granted to colonial areas they have set free. Nixon's remarks were prompted by an at-

The White House announced that President Eisenhower has signed an order giving the committee power to look over federal income estate, gift, excess profits, and "certain other returns."

"I think that Italy is one of the best arguments in the world today for the validity of American economic assistance programs," he declared.

He was almost mobbed by a huge throng which gathered at the entrance to the Rome railway station, where he went to launch the "Open Skies for Peace" exhibit sponsored by the U. S. Information Agency.

Pope Is Pleased
Pope Pius told Nixon on Sunday that he was comforted by the way President Eisenhower and the American people practice good will to settle international disputes. But the pontiff added there is still a great need for defense measures and for charters and policy statements "rounded out with solemn sanctions."

Nixon delivered to the pontiff a message from President Eisenhower expressing the wish that the Pope's "labor in the interest of world concord" may prove an inspiration to new nations.

The message said Eisenhower was "highly gratified" that Nixon had the opportunity to visit the head of the Roman Catholic Church.

tack on his visit by the Italian Communist party newspaper L'Unita.

Nixon lauded Italian officials for the "courageous leadership" he said they had demonstrated in rebuilding Italy's war-shattered economy into a sound base for economic progress.

DOCTOR FACES MURDER COUNTS IN OLD BAILEY

By JAMES F. KING

LONDON (AP)—Dr. John Bodkin Adams, outwardly as calm as in the days he treated his wealthy patients at Eastbourne, went on trial in Old Bailey Monday on charges of murder.

Dr. Adams, accused of killing three patients out of greed, entered a plea of innocent at the outset.

The 58-year-old society doctor blinked occasionally as he heard the prosecution tell a jury of 10 men and 2 women that when he was arrested he gripped his receptionist's hand and remarked: "I will see you in heaven."

Doctor Is Quoted

The prosecution also quoted the Bible-reading doctor as saying he did not report a material interest in the will of one of his patients because he wanted "the cremation to go off smoothly."

Atty. Gen. Manningham Buller told the jury one of the forms the doctor had to fill out for cremation of the body of one of his alleged victims, Mrs. Edith Morrell, asked him to state if he had a pecuniary interest in the death of the deceased.

The physician had answered "not as far as I am aware."

The proper answer, the prosecutor said, would have been "Yes, she told me she was going to personal best wishes for your continued well-being, and to express to you the affection and high esteem of the American people," the message said.

3 Missing Scouts Found In Shack

GATLINBURG, Tenn. (AP)—Three Boy Scouts, missing overnight on a hike in the rugged Great Smoky Mountains, were found Monday huddling in a shack on 5,693-foot Mt. Le Conte.

The boys, members of Greeneville, Tenn., Troop 94, were found by the Morristown rescue squad in an outhouse near a lodge which stands atop the peak, one of the highest in the Smokies.

Lector Thorne Jr., 13, and oldest of the trio, said they reached the lodge about dusk on Sunday after hiking from Newfound Gap, eight miles distant.

leave me something." He said Adams had conferred with the old lady's lawyer about a Rolls-Royce automobile promised him in her will.

The prosecutor said Adams, when questioned about this, replied:

"Oh, that was not done wickedly. God knows it was not. We always want cremation to go off smoothly for the dear relatives. If I had said I knew I was getting money under the will they might get suspicious and I like cremations and burials to go smoothly. There was nothing suspicious, really. I was not deceitful."

"But for this false answer there might have been no cremation," said the prosecutor, "and the prosecution might have been in a position to tell you how much morphia and heroin there was in the body of Mrs. Morrell at the time of her death."

The physician read a Bible in his prison cell before being taken into court to face charges of turning Mrs. Morrell, 81-year-old eccentric widow, into a drug addict and slowly bringing about her death in 1950.

5 MINISTERS ARE PROMOTED

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Rev. Frank W. Montgomery, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, State College, Pa., was one of five ministers appointed district superintendents in the Washington episcopal area.

The appointments, announced over the weekend by Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, are to become effective at annual conferences in May and June. The area embraces portions of four states.

Mr. Montgomery will be superintendent of the Sunbury District of the Central Pennsylvania Conference and succeed Dr. Charles F. Berkeimer of Sunbury.

Another appointment was that of the Rev. Eugene C. Woodward, pastor of the North Avenue Methodist Church in Baltimore, who will be superintendent of the Hagerstown District—100 Methodist churches in Garrett, Allegany and Washington Counties, Md., and Berkley and Morgan Counties, W. Va.

Mr. Montgomery will oversee 54 churches in Lycoming, Columbia, Luzerne, Union, Northumberland and Snyder counties in Pennsylvania.

The district superintendents are appointed for six-year terms and cannot succeed themselves. Outgoing superintendents will be appointed to pastorates at the annual spring conference.

TUNISIANS CRY FOR "LIBERTY" AND CHEER NIXON

TUNIS (AP) — Vice President Nixon was brought face-to-face today in this newly independent nation with demands for independence for neighboring Algeria.

One such cry came from a woman in a yellow sweater.

Apparently near hysteria, she burst through police lines at the U. S. Information Agency library during a tumultuous reception for the vice president from thousands of Tunisians.

"Liberty!" she shouted in Arabic. "We want liberty for the Algerian people. The French have killed Algerian children. Liberty! Liberty!"

Some Blame U. S.

Nixon listened patiently while a Tunisian official translated her words. Then, without a word, he smiled and walked up the steps into the library office. He and his party are aware the United States is accused in some quarters of France of meddling in North African affairs.

The woman identified herself to newsmen afterward as "Mrs. Zarouche, Algerian wife of a Tunisian.

Bill Henry, Nixon's spokesman, said Nixon found labor leaders, businessmen and farm representatives of Tunisia, a former French protectorate, cheering the demand that France give up Algeria, that Algerian freedom is an absolute necessity to assure peace and stability in North Africa.

Applaud And Scream

Excited Tunisian men, women and boys pelted Nixon with flower petals, applauded and screamed "Neexon, Neexon" from the U. S. Embassy as he strolled down a flag-bedecked avenue.

Several hundred policemen, struggling to hold back the crowds, locked arms along both sides of the street. Nixon, smiling broadly, shook hands with hundreds of spectators.

The enthusiasm of the crowds gave Nixon's Secret Service bodyguards several anxious moments. One of the agents intercepted and searched a bouquet of carnations which an excited spectator tried to hand to Nixon.

Nixon paid courtesy calls on Tunisian leaders.

Meets Prime Minister

He spent several hours last night discussing Tunisia's economic plight with Prime Minister Habib Bourguiba.

Tunisian leaders, looking for outside assistance to bolster an economy hurt by the flight of French capital, already are passing on the word that Nixon has no proposals for substantial American financial assistance.

A technical aid program of about five million dollars plus some surplus American farm products is reported to be the main talking point in aid conversations thus far.

MAY INCREASE INTEREST RATE ON U.S. BONDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a bill to give the Treasury flexible authority to increase the interest rate on government savings bonds from the present 3 per cent to as much as 3½ per cent.

The Treasury has indicated that at present it contemplates boosting the rate to 3½ per cent.

A voice vote which showed no House opposition yesterday sent the measure to the Senate.

The new interest rate would apply to Series E and H bonds bought on or after Feb. 1, and to bonds purchased previously but maturing after Feb. 1.

Sales Are Lagging

The Treasury is seeking to hike the interest rate to boost lagging bond sales. The yield on other forms of investment has increased recently while the government bond rate remained unchanged.

Under the plan, Series E bonds would mature in 8 years and 11 months instead of the present, 9 years and 11 months.

Holders of Series H bonds receive interest checks each six months.

The Treasury originally sought authority to fix the rate on the same flexible basis as now applies to other types of Treasury bonds.

SCHEDULED RAIL STRIKE AVERTED

CLEVELAND (AP) — A strike called for 6:30 a.m. tomorrow against the New York Central Railroad system was averted today when the National Railway Mediation Board entered the dispute between the carrier and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, a NYC spokesman said.

The railroad spokesman said this would have permitted a rate as high as 4¼ per cent.

However, the House Ways and Means Committee voted to put a 3½ per cent ceiling on the authority for savings bonds.

NYC had been informed from from Washington that the board had taken jurisdiction and later would assign a mediator and set a time for a conference of both sides in the dispute.

Strike notices issued to 3,000 trainmen in the railroad's service between Buffalo and Chicago are coming down, the NYC spokesman said, and "there will be no strike and no need for legal steps on the part of the railroad."

There was no immediate confirmation from the BRT's headquarters here that it had received the board notice.

Trinidad, an island off the coast of Venezuela, was first named here, "Land of the Hummingbird." It was discovered by Columbus in 1498.

Low On Gas, Plane Stops At Station

HOUSTON, Tex. (P) — Walter Cowden, a service station attendant west of here, was startled on Sunday when a small plane taxied up to refuel.

The pilot, Kenneth C. Bogges, 38, decided to land when he ran low on fuel while flying in bumpy weather from San Marcos, Tex., to Houston.

Bogges said he checked the highway and landed when it was clear of traffic, taxied up to the service station and told Cowden to put five gallons of super premium gasoline in the wing tanks. Then he taxied off to a side road, took off, and landed the plane at a private airport five miles away.

LIFT 40-YEAR BAN

HARRISBURG (P)—The Agriculture Department has announced withdrawal of a 40-year ban on the growing of potatoes in backyard gardens and farms in Carbon, Luzerne, and Schuylkill counties.

It was imposed because of potato wart disease which made potatoes unfit for use. The department said that the last strongholds of the soil-borne disease fungus have been wiped out through soil sterilization treatments. Only two small areas in Sullivan and Susquehanna counties remain under the ban.

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (P)—Mark Michael Troyan, 3½, was struck by a car and killed while walking near his home at nearby Kelsor Saturday night.
